

el codo

Duration: 5'45", stereo, recorded around the Montserrat mountain.

Voices: Paola Caballero, Duncan Gibbs, Anna-Maria Hällgren, Elana Jacobs, Sven Popović.

This sound piece introduces the fatalistic observation of a character facing the skin of her own elbow, which loosens itself while time passes. In parallel, a surrounding presence is seeping in while other voices surround one after the other our main character, who first sounded like stumbling along a rocky and friable bend.

The following photographs gather diverse elbows I met during the residency.
