

Can Serrat

I am currently making work for a solo exhibition in Dublin in Autumn 2023 which focuses on our childhood experience of domestic space both lived and imagined.

The studio space in Can Serrat gave me the opportunity to experiment with materials and scale. Large scale paintings on fabric, referencing lace work collected in Barcelona are the beginnings of an installation of textile hangings and sculpture.

